PERSONAL.—The Rev. F. Upham, whose pastoral services have been enjoyed for the last two years by the Marlboro' street Methodist Church and congregation of this city, gave them his final discourse last Sabbath. He has labored with zeal and to general acceptance during his stay here.

His closing sermon, which he facetiously styled a "do well" rather than a farewell effort, was one of his best, and if practically regarded by those who heard it, could not fail to make them wiser and better.

The Providence conference of the M. E. Church will commence its annual session in Bristol, on Wednesday of this week.

Conduct of Life.

Mr. Emerson's lecture on Friday evening upon the "Conduct of Life," gave great satisfaction to his auditors.

We have never known a more thoroughly attentive and appreciative audience (excepting perhaps a packed house in Boston where everybody knows what to expect and goes accordingly) than the one on this occasion, at Aquidneck Hall.

Mr. Emerson's voice, the most wonderful for its varied and significant intonations and its mystic depth ever heard, is plainly the voice most pleasant to the ears of Newport lecture-goers; his manner, self-reliant, but simple as a child, without gesture, with no desire to urge a point, is the manner most agreeable to them. His style of expression, displaying the best use of the best and simplest saxon words, quaint because it was just the utterance of the thing he meant to say, pure, because it dealt only in realities, things actually seen,—by a Beer perhaps rather than an observer, but seen all the plainer for that—is the style best appreciated here.

His thoughts, his truths, his views and his conclusions, those echoes from the eternal world, those grand revelations of spiritual laws and laws, those statements that once more adjust the relations of life, and bring us to ourselves, they too were well received and fairly appreciated.

It would be worse than useless to attempt a report of Mr. Emerson's discourse.—Those who heard it with such attention can hardly have their memories improved by anything we might report, while those who did not hear it, would be quite likely to get false impressions from the few isolated gems we might draw from this over-laden casket.

We are of opinion, that in the great book of Accounts, next to the common street scandal monger, the Newspaper reporters will have the most wrong stories to answer for,—a fate we are somewhat solicitous to avoid.

There is one thing, however, that must be said of this lecture as a composition. We often hear the remark made of Mr. Emerson's discourses, "Oh yes, he says a great many good things, but there is no connexion between them." He doesn't begin anywhere in particular nor end anywhere. We beg leave to differ from this somewhat common and not very strange mistake. Mr. Emerson son does begin at the right place, and with more propriety than most speakers is sure to end when he gets through. The fact is, my friend, he does not happen to live in the same street (intellectually and spiritually) with you and me, when he goes out into the world he comes first upon a different part of the town from the one to which our somewhat wearied feet are accustomed; and happy are we if for an hour we can get upon his beat.

Mr. E. has no great anxiety for the ears or the understandings of his auditors. Speech with him is not a dynamic force. The stir-em-up-with-a-long-pole quality of human utterance he plainly ignores. He instinctively acts on the supposition that what is worth hearing is worth listening for. Hence he not only gives us none of the arts of the elocutionist, but he exhibits none of the common, weary transitions, those turnings of the corners in discourses, with a light rein and a crack of the whip and that low "shearing off" of the whole team, that makes even the sleepy demon fully aware where the speaker is going to.

In a word Mr. Emerson is an Artist not an Artisan. This dovetailing a discourse together with nineteen heads and three "again's" and two "lastlies" is the work proper of a fair handicraftsman but not of an artist. It may be necessary considering the obtuse intellects of most audiences, but it is a very imperfect way of uniting, of blending and making one, many truths.

In his speech Mr. Emerson begins at the beginning, as the sculptor begins with his block of marble; his transitions are like those the sculptor makes; out of the grand mass of native truth and inherent facts, (the maxims that underlie) all life, he shapes his discourse, and no wonder that as its form begins to appear clothed in complete truthfulness and subtle grace, he fixes the attention of his audience, and though there appears nothing to flatter the special mental conceit of any yet all who have ears to hear, are charmed and informed and educated and inspired.

Since writing the above we learn that Mr. Emerson has been invited to read a second lecture, before a Newport audience. We are glad to hear this, and are sure he will be well received by a large audience of attentive listeners.

FLOUR AND GRAIN AT THE WEST.—There is much inquiry in regard to the stock of flour and grain at the West, and on this point we condense the following from a private letter to a leading house of this city, dated Chicago, March 21: There are in store at Chicago 47,000 bushels flour, 700,000 bushels wheat, 150,000 bushels corn, and 40,000 bushels oats. At Milwaukee 56,000 bushels flour, and 595,000 bushels wheat. At Kenosha, between two and three hundred thousand bushels wheat, and at Racine about the same quantity. The writer also expresses the opinion that half the wheat crop of Wisconsin is not yet marketed, while the quantity in Illinois is much larger, than is generally stated. At Chicago corn was taken at 43¢ a bushel in April and May, 45¢ for June, and 50¢ for July. The crop of wheat on the ground is also said to be very promising.—N. Y. Courier.

THE WHEAT CROP.—The Tennessee, North Georgia and Virginia papers are jubilant over the brilliant prospects of the growing wheat crop. The fields, under the influence of warm rain and mild sunshine, look wondrously green, and a plentiful harvest is everywhere anticipated. So also in the Western and Northwestern states the prospect is good. Wherever the snow has disappeared the wheat looks sound and healthy, and, as an unusual amount was sown last year, we may expect abundant harvests.

GEN. LA VEGA, the Mexican General, is stopping at Willard's Hotel, Washington, is also Col. MAY, who took LA VEGA's guns, and made him prisoner at the battle of Palo Alto; and to complete the curious co-union, Col. MAGRUDER, to whom MAY handed LA VEGA over for safe-keeping, is at the same hotel. It must have been pleasant as well as suggestive to see these warriors assembled at the same dinner table, in a friendly way, and popping champagne corks instead of nine pounders.—N. Y. Sun.

DEATH IN THE GREEN ROOM.—On Saturday just previous to the commencement of the opera, at the Philadelphia Academy, a worthy member of the female chorus died suddenly in the green room, of the disease of the heart. The singers shocked as they were, forced down their emotions and went through their parts with appropriate composure.

A brother of the distinguished Edmund Burke was found in a reverie after listening to one of his most eloquent speeches in parliament, and being asked the cause, replied: "I have been wondering how Ned as contrived to monopolize all the talents of the family; but then I remember, when we were at play he was always at work."

ATTEMPT TO POISON A FAMILY.—A German, named Henry Beck, has been arrested in Brooklyn, N. Y., on a charge of putting arsenic into the dinner pot of Mr. George Gregson, his employer. The whole family were taken violently ill after partaking of the contents of the pot, and it was with difficulty that their lives were saved.

A camp of runaway negroes, under regular military government, with armed sentinels constantly posted around it, was discovered, and after a skirmish, broken up, last Thursday, in the vicinity of Columbia, S. C. It was located in a dense thicket, and the residents round about were drawn upon nightly for provisions.

A destructive conflagration occurred at Plymouth, Indiana, Sunday morning. Nearly the whole business portion of the town was destroyed. Loss estimated at $100,000.

Walter Sherrod, a highly respectable citizen of North Providence, R. I., has disappeared under circumstances which lead to ears that he has been foully dealt with.

Latest News.

ASPINWALL, March, 19.

[Correspondence of Commercial Advertiser.]—The steamer Panama, Capt. Dow, arrived at Panama on the night of the 14th ult. from San Jose de Guatemala, with 125 deserters from Walker's army, whose passage has been paid by the Costa Rican Government to the United States. She also brings as passenger Mr. Spencer, of Costa Rica, a notorious deserter. These deserters are remaining in Panama until the arrival of the Golden Gate from San Francisco, when they will come over the road and embark on board the steamers for New Orleans and New York. Walker is strongly fortified at Rivas, and will defend it at all hazards, although he has only a force of 600 men, and is getting short of provisions. He is hemmed in with 3000 Costa Ricans, and the states of Honduras, Salvador and San Jose are furnishing and have forwarded 3000 more to join the Costa Ricans, making a total of 6000 troops of the allied army. Walker is in a critical situation, and unless he is immediately reinforced his chances are small of gaining another battle. He will maintain his position and hold out as long as possible, and his men will sell their lives dearly before they will be taken, as no quarter will be given by the allies. The news that went by the Tennessee was so conflicting that no reliance could be placed on the various reports. What I send now is derived from a disinterested passenger, and you will find it correct.

The frigate Independence and corvette Decatur, are in Panama; officers and crew all well. The John Adams and St. Mary's are expected daily. Captain Fairfax is waiting to join the John Adams in Panama. The Cyane is here, all well. The Walash has not yet arrived. Spencer keeps close, and is hardly to be seen. Truly can it be said we live in a country of wonder and excitement.

They were governed by the instructions of the Court, granted at the instance of the counsel for the defence. Lee, it will be recollected, openly, but erroneously, at the last public reception of President Pierce, charged Hume with picking his pockets. Next morning, when Hume called at the Pension Office to enquire him that he was mistaken, Lee not only refused to retract, but firmly reiterated the charge. For this Hume censored Lee, who shot him.

MUTINY.—Nine of the crew of the ship Charles Mervin have been arrested at New Orleans, at the instance of the captain, on a charge of mutinous conduct during the voyage from Boston. One of the party attacked the first mate of the ship, while the others, armed with knives, stood guard to prevent the interference of the captain and other mates. The second mate, however, made a bold push to rescue his associate, in doing so, was knocked down with a marlin-spike, and it was with difficulty that they were induced to stop beating the mate and return to duty. During the whole passage they manifested a mutinous disposition.

A STRANGE FREAK OF NATURE.—There may be seen at the present time at the apothecary store of Joseph Studley, Main street, one of Nature's most curious freaks in the form of a full grown kitten, in a state of preservation, with eight legs and two tails; each leg being perfect with the usual number of claws. It is supposed said kitten was born alive, but the mother was so mortified on seeing its deformities that she put an end to its existence. It is a native of this city.—Cambridge Chronicle.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUPONCE'S Golden Periodical Pills for Females. Perfectly harmless, yet wonderfully and powerfully efficacious in correcting, regulating, and removing all obstructions from whatever cause.

All medical men know, as well as many others, that no female can enjoy good health, unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health begins immediately to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, Pain in the Side, Palpitation of the Heart, Loathing of Food, and Disturbed Sleep, do most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils; and may always be used successfully as a preventive. Price, 50¢ per box. For sale by HAZARD & CASWELL, 12 Washington Square, and 137 Thames St. They will supply the trade at manufacturer's prices. Ladies, by enclosing $1.00 to STURGIS & CO., Box 24 Newport Post Office, can have the Pills sent (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city, or country. jy2—ly3

DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.

BROOKLYN, Conn., June 15, 1854. FRIEND DAVIS:—Although a stranger to you, I take the liberty of addressing a few lines to you for the purpose of saying a few words in favor of your invaluable medicine. I have used your Pain Killer for a number of years, and for bowel complaint and burns, and in fact for pains of all kinds, I think it pre-eminent. Before I became acquainted with your medicine, I had a violent attack of dysentery, which reduced me very low, in fact my friends thought I could not survive, but by the treatment of a Botanic Physician, the best remedy I then knew, I recovered. Since then, I have had several attacks, one very violent, about four years ago. I was attacked at 3 o'clock in the morning, and at sunrise, I was not able to get off my bed, I sent and got a twenty-five cent bottle of your Pain Killer, which I commenced taking, according to directions, and at six o'clock the evening my bowels were regular, and I was up and feeling about, although somewhat weak. I would recommend to all similarly afflicted, to avail themselves of your invaluable medicine. I am sir, yours respectfully, ELMER WILLIAMS.

The genuine Perry Davis' Pain Killer is now put up in panel bottles, with the words Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer blown in the glass; and with two steel engraved labels on each bottle. One is an exact copy of the Perry Davis, the original inventor of the medicine, the other a steel engraved note of hand—none others can be relied upon as genuine. Prices of bottles 12½¢, 25¢, 50¢, 60¢, and $1 respectively.

PERRY DAVIS & SON, Proprietors, No. 71 High Street, Providence, R. I. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

DEAR SIR:—The Defense Safe, No. 5,778, purchased from you about eighteen months since, was in my house at Newport, R. I., which, with the furniture, was entirely destroyed by fire on the night of 5th June last. The Safe, after being exposed to an intense heat for many hours, was recovered on the 10th of June. Not having the necessary tools at hand to open it, the same has stood just as when recovered, until shipped to your address, Nov. 1st. When opened at your store this morning, I was agreeably surprised, as were also others present, to find the contents, consisting of valuable silver plate, &c., in as perfect order as when placed therein. It is with pleasure I add my testimony to the merits of the Safes of your manufacture. Yours, respectfully, DANIEL PARKER.

All Taps but Me.
(From the German.)
Out of the tavern I've just stepped to-night—
Streets! you are caught in a very bad plight;
Night hand and left hand are all out of place—
Street, you are drunk; 'tis a very clear case.

Moon, 'tis a very queer figure you cut!
One eye is staring wide, 't'other is shut;
Topsy, I see, and you are greatly to blame;
Old as you are, 'tis a horrible shame.

Then the street lamps—what a scandalous sight
None of them soberly standing upright;
Rocking and staggering—why on my word,
Each of the lamps is as drunk as a lord.

All is confusion; now isn't it odd?
Nothing is sober that I see abroad;
Sure it were rash with this crew to remain,
Better go into the tavern again.
